

Plenary

9:00am – 10:45am	Opening Session	Covid – The great revealer of gaps in our approach Prof Des O’Neill- Consultant Geriatrician, Tallaght University Hospital Get up, get dressed, get moving - My future older self Deirdre Lang- Director of Nursing/National Lead Older Persons Services, Clinical & Integrated Programmes, HSE The continuum of care for people with dementia in Ireland Prof Eamon O’Shea- HRB Research Leader and Director of CESRD And Susan Cliffe- Deputy Chief Inspector of Social Services, Health Information and Quality Authority
11:30pm – 12:45pm	Supporting people at home	Chair of Session Dr Emer Begley- Senior Project Manager, NDO Let’s talk about dementia: Creating inclusive communities Fiona Foley- National Co-ordinator, Dementia Understand in Communities, HSE Evidence on the impact of the Community Memory Technology Resource Rooms Eibhlis Cahalane- Project Lead, Memory Technology Project, HSE Evaluation of the implementation and impact of the post-diagnostic support programme Fiona Keogh- Senior Research Fellow NUI Galway And Mary Bardin- Operations Manager, Alzheimer Society of Ireland
1:30pm – 2:30pm	Truth telling and therapeutic lying	Dementia - when is the truth a lie? Prof Kate Irving- School of Nursing, Psychotherapy and Community Health, Dublin City University Approaches to behaviours that challenge / Therapeutic lies as person centred interventions Prof Ian James- CNTW NHS Trust, UK
3:00pm – 4:15pm	Dementia - Current and emerging treatments	Emerging concepts in diagnosing and treating Alzheimer’s Disease Prof Sean Kennelly- Consultant Geriatrician & Co-Director, Tallaght University Hospital Memory Service Post Diagnostic Supports Cathy McHale- Advanced Nurse Practitioner (Candidate)

Parallel

9:00am – 10:30am	Research & Practice	Chair of Session Laura O Philbin- Alzheimer Society Ireland Engagement and positive psychology outcome measure Charlotte Stoner- Lecturer in Psychology at the University of Greenwich Hear our Voice Guidelines Marguerite Keating, Clodagh Whelan and Dr Fiona Keogh- Irish Dementia Working Group Fostering the Resilience of People with Dementia: A Narrative Literature Review Sally Whelan- PHD Candidate, NUI Galway
11:30am – 12:45pm	Resilience & Wellbeing	Well I don’t like salmon now! Niamh Bruce- Mindfulness and Wellbeing Facilitator, the Sanctuary Exploring the feasibility and acceptability of a Comprehensive Resilience-building psychosocial intervention (CREST) for people with dementia in the community: a non-randomised feasibility study Dr Siobhan Smyth- School of Nursing and Midwifery, National University Galway Perspectives of psychologists on Positive Aspects of Caring, as experienced by family carers of people living with dementia Sinead Grennan- CEO, Engaging Dementia & Assistant Psychologist Montessori Works for Dementia Bernadette Phillips- Researcher and Montessori Consultant
1:30pm – 2:30pm	Interdependence and Enablement	We run it and fuel it ourselves: Purpose and opportunity in dementia empowerment groups Robert Hagan- Senior Lecturer in Social Work, Manchester Metropolitan Community Cultivating relationships within our community Ciaran Murray- Activities Co-ordinator, and accredited psychotherapist with IACP and IAHIP Adapting dementia and delirium awareness training to a rehabilitation setting Emma Gannon- Senior Occupational Therapist, Clontarf Hospital
3:00pm – 4:30pm	Creative Arts	Artful Approach: Supporting care interactions through creativity Anne Mondro- Associate Professor at the University of Michigan The Photobook Project: A creative framework empowering people living with dementia and their wider communities Ellie Robinson-Carter- Creative Dementia Practitioner and Researcher Music therapy and dementia: developing a multi-sensory approach Lisa Kelly- Music Therapy (Student), University of Limerick Dancing Well with Dementia Robert Connor & Loretta Yurick- Artistic Directors, Dance Theatre of Ireland

Poster Presentations

5:00pm – 6:00pm	Elizabeth O'Donnell	Exploring strategies used by care home staff to manage behaviour that challenges, associated with dementia: a systematic review of qualitative studies
	Karen Gorman	Post diagnostic Dementia support
	Brian Magennis	Applying Collaborative Co-Design and Implementation Science to inform implementation planning for a dementia re-design project in a hospital setting
	Ger Matthews	Improving Wayfinding and Orientation for patients in a rehabilitation hospital – A Dementia friendly approach
	Emma Finch	Implementation of a Cognitive Stimulation Therapy Group on a Specialist Geriatric Ward
	Claire Matthews	Introducing Assistive Technology to clients and Carers in Dementia Care
	Conor Ludden	The Perspectives of Nursing Home Facility Staff on Non-Pharmacological Interventions for Non-Cognitive Symptoms of Dementia
	Bernie McGowan	Prioritising the assessment of referrals to the Social Prescribing program in The Mercer's Institute for Successful Aging (MISA), St James's Hospital

Main Sponsor

Academic Partner

Advisory Panel

Brought to you by

Plenary

9:00am – 10:30am	Psychotropic medication and dementia: Maintaining person centred care	Improving Care for People with Dementia Living in Nursing Homes Prof Clive Ballard- Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Executive Dean, College of Medicine and Health, University of Exeter Guidelines for the use of psychotropic medications with people with dementia Dr Suzanne Timmons- Geriatrician in Cork and Senior Lecturer in the Centre for Gerontology and Rehabilitation, UCC Quality Improvement in the Use of Hypnotic and PRN Psychotropic Medication - A Residential Care Setting Experience Florence Horsman Hogan- Quality and Patient Safety Manager, Leopardstown Park Hospital
11:30pm – 12:45pm	Residential, acute and community care settings	2020: A year like no other, a journey through the unknown Daragh Rodger- Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Care of the Older Adult Community, St Mary's Hospital Dementia Support UK, HammondCare, Connections and Capacity Building in the context of COVID-19 Julie Christie- Service Manager International, Visiting Research, Fellow, University of Edinburgh Adjunct Lecturer, University of New South Wales, Dementia Centre HammondCare The impact of social isolation on people living with dementia: Supporting people at this challenging time Nisha Joy- Person in Charge, Carebright Community
2:00pm – 3:30pm	GBHI Mini Symposium Dementia Care in Global Settings	Chair: Prof Brian Lawlor, Deputy Executive Director, Global Brain Health Institute, Trinity College, Dublin In this symposium, Atlantic Fellows at GBHI will provide diverse perspectives and insights on dementia care and practice from around the world. Speakers: Ieva Petkute (Lithuania), Dr. Stefania Ilinca (Romania), Dr Yaohua Chen (France), Dr Purity Mwendwa (Kenya), Wambui Karanja (Kenya), Fernando Aguzzoli Peres (Brazil), and Clara Dominguez-Vivero (Spain).
4:00pm – 5:00pm	Psychosocial interventions: What works and for whom?	Psychosocial interventions: What works and for whom? Prof Esme Moniz-Cook- Professor of Clinical Psychology of Ageing and Dementia Care at the University of Hull Matching occupational identity to opportunities in the community Catherine Daly- Senior Occupational Therapist, HSE Music, song and dance meets dementia Frances Maloney- Operations Manager, Community Action on Dementia Mayo

Parallel

9:00am – 10:30am	Creative Arts	Moving A Dementia Inclusive Choir Online during Covid Norah Walsh- Musical director for the Forget-Me-Nots The Visit: Engaging with an Avatar with Dementia Dr Gail Kenning & Prof Jill Bennett- FEEL (felt Experience and Empathy Lab) and Ageing Futures Institute, University of New South Wales Some Dance to Remember- The first steps Sean Donal O'Shea- MA of research student, Limerick Institute of Technology "From Yeast to Yeats" - Giving Rise to the Lived Experience of Dementia Dimitra Xidou- Research Fellow - Arts, Health, and Engagement, TrinityHaus An Audio-Visual Jam Emma Ainsley- Artist, AinsleyPhillips Co-creative Projects
11:00am – 12:15pm	Supporting People at the end of life	Chair of session Deirdre Shanagher- Strategic Clinical Nurse Expert with Regulatory Compliance, Nursing Homes Ireland Communication is key: ensuring effective dissemination of key messages and new knowledge from mySupport study & Fit for context: Co-designing a Comfort Care booklet for people with dementia Irene Hartigan- Lecturer, University College Cork CEOL and end-of-life care for people living with dementia Kate Steele- National Development Manager, Residential Care Settings - Irish Hospice Foundation CEOL and end-of-life care for people living with dementia Majella Sweeney- Director of Nursing, Archview Nursing Home, Co Donegal
2:00pm – 3:30pm	Improving Dementia care pathways	The Cognitive Daisy: A tool for guiding care related decisions and empowering caregivers of people with dementia Dr John Hudson & Dr Petra Pollux- University of Lincoln The role of the dementia support nurse: to support people with dementia and carers following a diagnosis in a day hospital setting Karen Gorman- Dementia support Nurse, Beaumont Hospital The development of a post diagnostic support service for people with dementia and initial evaluation and audit findings Claire Rooney- Clinical Specialist Occupational Therapist at Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services A Literature Review of Diagnostic Processes and Pathways for People Living with Younger Onset Dementia Caroline Kilty- Lecturer, University College Cork
4:00pm – 5:00pm	Meeting the needs of people with Intellectual Disability and Dementia	Using public transport - experiences of pwd Cathal Blake- PhD Candidate at Dublin City University Supporting Dementia Care in a Disability Organisation Jenna Pyne- Speech and Language Therapist , Cope Foundation An exploration of the impact upon individuals, families and communities of implementing a Community Based - Social Model of Care in Dementia Noelle Clancy- Student researcher at the Limerick Institute of Technology

Dementia training, events, consultancy and resources for care partners
www.engagingdementia.ie

